ANOTHER NEW INVENTION

"Electricity From A Powder"

(Special Air Mail Service)

London, Sept. 16.

In the lighted room of a riverside house here to-night a man crouched over a table connecting electrical wires. Attaching electrical plugs, and preparing quantities of a strange white powder.

In the same room sat an armed detective keeping guard; beside him lay an Alsatian wolfhound.

The man is Mr. Ernest Gooch, a Maldstone builder. He claims to have invented a way of making, electrical energy which will revolutionise the electrical world as it exists to-day.

ALMOST FOR NOTHING

His invention, he says, will make electricity so cheap that a whole house can be lighted for a month for 4d. His own house is lit by this means, and at that cost.

He is preserving the strictest secrecy about his invention until to-morrow, when he has to give a demonstration of it to Mr. E.
Hoadley, the Maldstone Borough
Electricity Engineer.

Mr. Hoadley said to me tonight: I heard of Mr. Gooch last Friday when he came into my office to borrow a volt-meter.

"In the course of conversation with him, he mentioned a remarkable discovery of his."

"I questioned him and he was very reticent, but he told me that by means of his invention it would be possible to light 100 lamps and drive a 1 h.p. engine for a month at a cost of 4d. I gathered that he manufactured his energy by means of a white powder which he refuses to describe, a far and some metal plates.

MR. GOOCH'S FEARS

Mr. Gooch said that if I would go round to his house at three o'clock, to-morrow (Wednesday), he would arrange a convincing demonstration for me. I am going to see his demonstration with my mind absolutely open.

"His discoveries may revolutionise all laws of electricity as we know them to-day. On the other hand they may not."

Mr. Gooch refused to see me.
He spoke to me through a window of the first story room in which he was working. He said that he would have to be working all night, preparing his demonstration and could not spare a moment.

"I don't want anybody to know about my discovery until I am ready," he said. "So it is no use your trying to see me. The fact of the matter is that I am afraid of people finding out my secret before I am ready to divulge it."

Mr. Gooch was at one time employed in a motor garage, but recently he started a business of his own as a builder and repairer of motor-cycles.

The mysterious white powder, which forms the key point of his electrical experiments costs about a penny an ounce. That is all that is known about it.

Notes From Everywhere

New Rolling Stock For The Railways

That the internal combustion engine is likely to prove of considerable help to the railways in the near future is evident from the extensive railcar experiments which are being carried out, not only by the four main line groups in England, but in many other parts of the world.

Some time ago Leyland Motors, Ltd., developed a traction unit for this work which is ideally suited for railway operation, owing to its automatic hydraulic transmission and because it can be fitted to almost any type of rolling stock and is, therefore, equally suitable for conversion purposes as for the building of new railcars.

Cars are already running in England, Ireland and Australia, the latest order received for this unit coming from the New Zealand Government railways and calling for seven complete units consisting of the engine, hydraulic transmission, rear axle and the necessary remote control gear. These are to be built into cars which are now under construction in the railway shops. Eventually they are to be operated on the Rimutakas mountain range, where gradients of the order of 1 in 12 with several five-chain curves are encountered.

Another railway which has recently placed an order for this type of transmission is the L.M.S. Railway, which has ordered a shunting locomotive for service in Northern Ireland. This will be of the 0-6-0 type and is to be fitted with a 10-horsepower Leyland C.I. engine at each end driving through the torque converter on to the centre axle, the arrangement being such that full power can be applied in either direction. As the loco will be lighter than a steam locomotive of the same power, ballast tanks will be fitted which can be filled with water and fuel oil, in this way the engine can carry 450 gallons of fuel oil, and its weight be brought up to 50 tons.

Another interesting type of railcar is under construction in Sweden. This has an engine and torque converter mounted on each bogie, the bogies themselves being fitted with pneumatic tyre equipment of the Austro-Daimler type. The body will be composed of steel sections welded together, which will form the actual vehicle frame.

OILINESS AND ITS IMPORTANCE

In the course of a "Quarter of a Century" number, wherein it dealt with the progress made in automobile design and in the allied industries on which the automobile depends, "The Automobile Engineer" refers to progress in fuels and oils.

"This matter of refining raises the question of the lubricating characteristics of an oil, as it would now appear possible to over-refine. The quality known as 'oiliness' may be endangered to some extent in the process of manufacture. Here, again, interesting work has been carried out by the oil chemist, who discovered some time back that the addition of small quantities of fatty acid increases what is known as the oiliness of an oil."

"As to what exactly are the underlying physical or chemical causes of oiliness, there appears to be some obscurity. It is, however, agreed that this is related in some way to the tenacity with which the oil attaches itself to the surfaces that are being lubricated. That is to say, the resistance of the last boundary film to breakdown is the factor of importance. It seems possible that this characteristic may in turn be in some way related to the surface tension that exists in all fluids. There may be some inter-molecular tension in this surface film which gives it greater strength in the case of the oiler oil. In the very fine films at boundary conditions, practically nothing but the surface remains, so that the whole of the oil present on the metal is under surface tension due to the fact that it constitutes in effect a surface only."

"Whatever the causes may be, the fact is that oiliness is a factor of proven importance, and there is little doubt that it will be considered, one of the essential tests of modern oils."

The oil chemist referred to in the article is, of course, as "The Germ Triangle" points out, Mr. J. E. Southcombe, M.Sc., the head of the technical department of Germ Lubricants, Ltd., of London.

NEW FIRE ENGINES

Amongst the more interesting of the many orders received by Leyland Motors, Ltd., for its fire engines, is that of the London County Council Fire Brigade for fire tenders with special facilities for the carrying of breathing apparatus. The machine are fitted with 110-horsepower engines, seating accommodation for the crew being provided by a seat running the full width of the body and situated immediately behind the driver's seat, but separated from it by a partition. Cupboards behind the crew's seat carry the breathing apparatus, which can thus be donned en route to the fire. The pump, which is at the rear of the machine, is of 700 g.p.m. capacity, and has twin suction inlets. The engine is a standard 6-cylinder 43.5 h.p. Leyland petrol engine, and it is worthy of note that these machines are the first 6-cylinder fire engines to be ordered by the L.C.C.

LEYLAND OILERS WORK AT 40 DEGS. BELOW

Although "logging with Leylands" is almost a slogan in Canada, the oil-engined Badgers recently put into service by Price Bros. have created something of a sensation amongst lumbermen in Quebec and Ontario. The machines are used to haul sleighs loaded with logs from the woods to the river over roads of frozen snow, which are sometimes 12 ft. deep during the winter, from October to April. More often than not they are working in a temperature of 72 degs. of frost.

Operating from the loading platform over a distance of eight miles to the river, these vehicles carry five tons on their backs and tow three or four big sleighs loaded with between 35 and 50 tons of log. They work 24 hours a day, only stopping between midnight Saturday and 6 a.m. Monday, as without the snow work of this kind is impossible. The vehicles are standard overseas models fitted with pneumatic tyres with heavy snow chains on their rear wheels.

Lumbermen are watching their performance with unusual interest, as not only does the economy of the oil engine appeal to them, but the vehicles have the added advantage of being worked all the year, whereas the tractors which they replaced were only suitable for snow and had to be laid up during the summer months.

AN INTERESTING APPOINTMENT

Mr. Sidney A. Amos, M. Eng., who has been practising as a Consulting Diesel Engineer, has recently joined the staff of Germ Lubricants, Ltd., London.

A Master of Engineering of London University with considerable experience in the installation and operation of stationary and marine Diesel engines, Mr. Amos was with a well-known English engine builder and also with a Continental company before he commenced as a Consultant.

The firm he has now joined has a world-wide experience of Diesel engines of all kinds, including compression ignition engines for road vehicles.

TRANSPORT IN THE DESERT

The total length of the great Iraq pipe-line from Kirkuk in the Mosul oilfield area to the Mediterranean seaboard is 1,200 miles, the longest in the world.

For the transport of this vast quantity of pipes, special Scammell "Pioneer" vehicles were built for the Iraq Petroleum Co. These were huge 10-wheelers, each capable of carrying 10 tons of steel pipes up to 40 ft. long, fitted with a special type of jib crane for off-loading the pipes. The jib had a length of 24 ft., and a lifting capacity of one ton at the extreme end and of two tons halfway in its length.

Altogether orders for 21 of these vehicles were placed, and throughout the long and arduous enterprise the fleet of Scammell lorries stood up admirably to their task, even though conditions in the Trans-Jordan desert provide the most gruelling test for transport to be found anywhere in the world.

ENGINEERING AND BUILDING

MAIL NEWS FROM CHINA

RAILWAY TO CHANGE COURSE

To facilitate the construction work, it is learnt that the Chekiang-Kiangsi Railway Administration has decided to modify its original program. Instead of passing through Nanchang, provincial capital of Kiangsi, the Administration plans to extend the line from Yushan to Jingsiang, western Kiangsi, via Fengcheng, about 50 miles south of Nanchang.

TO LINK RAILWAYS

The Nanking-Shanghai and Nanking-Wuhu Railways will be linked up outside the Kuanghua Gate, in the south-eastern part of the Capital, where a through transportation station will be erected. The line linking up the two railways will be 21 kilometers in length, passing entirely on the outskirts of the Capital. The Kiangnan Railway Company will be responsible for the construction of 5 kilometers of the line from the Nanking-Wuhu station up to the through transportation station outside the Kuanghua Gate via Yuhua Road. The Nanking-Shanghai Railway authorities will build the 16 kilometer section from the through transportation station at the Kuanghua Gate northwards to the Jiaohua Gate.

TO INAUGURATE AIR SERVICE

The Eurasia Aviation Corporation has been ordered by the Ministry of Communications to make preparations for the inauguration of an air service between Sian and Chengtu, the provincial capitals of Shensi and Szechuan. It is learnt that after a test flight, which will be made by a new machine, regular trips will be started in the beginning of August.

LIGHT RAILWAY IN SHENSI

For the purpose of facilitating coal transportation in northern Shensi, the provincial government has approved plans for the construction of a light railway to link up Hsienyang, a prosperous city at the north bank of the Yellow River, with Tungkwan, the coal producing district in northern Shensi.

RAILWAY NEARING COMPLETION

Definite assurance that the Canton-Hankow Railway will be completed and in operation before the end of next year is contained in a lengthy report by Mr. H. H. Ling, director and engineer-in-chief of the yet uncompleted Chuchow-Shaochow section of the railroad. The completion of the railway at the end of next year will be an event of vast significance. In the matter of travel alone, it takes at present 15 days to travel from Canton to Hankow via Shanghai, the only practical route. When the line is completed, the trip will require about 32 hours. The new railroad will open up a vast new area to the big trading centers. It will, above all, serve as a means of close contact between North and South China, will give access to the rich interior of Hunan, and affords a trunk line to be lined up with the highway and branch railway connections to Kwangsi, Kweichow, and even remote Szechuan.

TATUNG-PUCKOW RAILWAY

Both the Talyuan-Yuanping (northern) section and the Lin-Houma (southern) section of the Tatung-Puckow Railway were opened to traffic on August 1. The Railway, which is being built by soldier labour, runs through Shansi province from north to south.

TIENSHUI-MALUCHEN HIGHWAY

The highway linking up Tien-shui (Tainchow), in eastern Kansu, and Maluchen, on the Kansu-Shensi border, covering a distance of 75 kilometers, has been completed. The Kansu Provincial Department of Reconstruction announces. The new road will further expedite inter-provincial communications between Kansu and Shensi as it connects the Lanchow-Tienshui Highway in Kansu with the Lungchow-Fenghsiang-Sian Highway in Shensi province.

CITY TELEPHONES

All city telephones, whether operated by the State or private corporations, should be linked up with the long-distance telephone system of the Ministry, states an order of the Ministry of Communications to the various Telegraph and Telephone Bureaux in the country. Steps should be taken immediately, the order urges, to conclude agreements with the private corporations for the institution of the service.

SIAN-CHENG TU AIR SERVICE

The projected air service between Sian and Chengtu, respectively provincial capitals of Shensi and Szechuan, will be inaugurated on the 10th inst. It is learnt at the Ministry of Communications. The airline will be operated by the Ministry of Communications with airplanes chartered from the Eurasia Corporation.

CANTON-SAMSHUI RAILWAY

It is learnt that the Kuangtung Provincial Government has decided to extend the Canton-Shamshui Railway to Wuchow, eastern Kuangsi, passing through Szeu in north-western Kuangtung and Holsin and Papu in eastern Kuangsi. The projected line is 230 kilometers long and will require $10,000,000 to construct. Surveys are being conducted by deputies of the Provincial Department of Reconstruction.

CANTON-HAINAN AIRWAY

The Canton Municipal authorities are planning to establish a civil aerodrome in Honam Island, opposite Canton city. The South-western Aviation Corporation has decided to extend, as from August 15, its Canton-Hainan Airway from Pakhol, south-western Kuangtung, to Nanning, provincial capital of Kuangsi, so as to link up with the Canton-Lungchow Line.

KANSU-SHENSI ROAD

The newly completed Tien-shui-Maluchen highway which links Tien-shui in eastern Kansu with Maluchen on the Shensi border with a total length of about 75 kilometers will be formally opened to traffic early in August.

BRIDGE SPANNING KAN RIVER

Construction work on the 1,080-meter bridge spanning the Kan River in Kiangsi which has been proceeding apace during the past 12 months will be completed by the end of September, according to information from the engineering bureau. The bridge will be known as the Chungcheng bridge, named after General Chiang Kai-shek (Chiang Chung-chen), chairman of the Military Affairs Commission.

BUS SERVICE RESUMED

Omibus service on the Sian (Shensi) - Lanchow (Kansu) Highway, which was recently discontinued as a result of the overflow of mountain freshets due to heavy rains, was resumed on July 30 following repairs.

NEW LIENYUNKANG PORT

Development of the new port of Lienyunkang, at the eastern terminus of the Lung-Hai Railway, is making great strides. The latest pieces of construction work started are the building of a reservoir and an electric power plant under the auspices of the Lung-Hai Railway Administration.

STEEL BRIDGE COMPLETED

Construction of the Huitung steel bridge in Lungling, western Yunnan, has been completed after two years' work. The bridge is 369 feet long and 9 feet wide and has been built at a cost of over $80,000.

CANTON-HANKOW RAILWAY

With the approval of the Ministry of Railways, a Planning Committee for the Readjustment of the Canton-Hankow Railway has been organized in Nanking with Mr. Hsia Kwang-yu as Chairman. In order to coordinate the planning with the survey work, an office will be established at Wuchang by the Committee.

LUNG-HAI LINE OBTAINS LOAN

The $4,860,000 loan contracted by the Ministry of Railways for the construction of sections of the Lung-Hai railway from Sian to Paohsi has been signed with a syndicate composed of the Shanghai Commercial and Savings Bank, the Kinchen Bank, the Bank of China and the Bank of Communications. The loans will be advanced to the railway ministry in four instalments, beginning November, at one per cent per year, beginning June 1935. It is being secured against the receipts from sales of Lung-Hai railway tickets through the China Travel Service, and freight proceeds of the Kailan Mining Corporation and the Chung Hsing Mining Corporation.

RADIO STATION AT SINCHWANG

The Ministry of Communications has decided to purchase at Sinchwang, about 7 miles south-west of Lung-Hua, Shanghai, a tract of land covering an area of more than 300 mou on which will be built a large-scale radio station. Work for the construction of a 10,000-watt radio broadcasting station at Wousung has already been started. When completed it will be the second largest station in the country.

RADIOPHONE LINE

Plans have been mapped out by the Kuangtung provincial government for the installation of a radiophone system linking Canton with Kiangmen (Kong-moon), the northern terminal of the Taishan Railway. The project, it is understood, will cost $100,000 and installation work is expected to start within a month.

BUS SERVICE TO BE OPENED

Bus service on the newly constructed Wush-Shanghai Highway will be formally inaugurated on August 15. It was decided at a recent meeting of the shareholders of the Wush-Shanghai long distance Omnibus Company. The capital of the company will be reduced from $1,000,000 to $800,000. Application for registration will be filed immediately with the Ministry of Industry.

IN RHODESIA

RUSSIAN PRIZE

Bridge Building

For British Firm

In a recent issue of the Bulletin of the General Manager of the Rhodesian Railways, some details were given of the organization for transporting large quantities of steel and other materials for the Birchenough Bridge over the Chagadzi River—the third largest bridge of its type in the world.

Owing to the length and weight of individual pieces of steelwork, varying from 51 ft. and 8 tons respectively, some difficult transport problems have been encountered, as in some places during the eighty-mile journey up-country from the base at Umtali, only narrow tracks with acute corners are available for road vehicles. Furthermore, gradients up to 1 in 8 have to be climbed where the roads are at their worst, and the climate being semi-tropical, the results of heavy seasonal rains have been detrimental to the regular supply of material being made to the erectors on the site.

The Transportation Department of the Rhodesian Railways, however, were quickly alive to the magnitude of the task, and at the outset specially modified Thornycroft three- and five-ton rigid six-wheelers were constructed. In the case of the three-tonners, these were converted into articulated eight-wheelers by arranging a turntable over the rear bogie to carry the front end of a long wheelbase two-wheeled trailer, while for Sundry references have appeared in the Press concerning the Russian Diesel Engine Contest which took place during the summer and autumn of last year, and in which various British engines were entered, including two Thornycroft oil installed in Russian made Arm and Yaroslav chassis.

The results of this exhaustive trial have now been made known, and it is exceedingly gratifying to record that the high Thornycroft standard of performance maintained throughout close on 5,000 miles of hard driving from Moscow to Tiflis and back has received recognition from the organizers in the form of a substantial prize. The total percentage of marks gained by the CINDA and DC8 engines was 79.1 and 74.5 respectively, compared with the maximum of 80.17 obtained by an engine of Continental origin.

Actually both the Thornycroft engines gained greater number of marks for economy than the engine that was adjudged to have scored the greatest number of points throughout the contest.

The large vehicles, special trailers were made from existing models in ordinary use to carry five to six tons of steelwork up to 45 ft. in length.

Up to quite recently these outfits had successfully dealt with nearly 3,000 tons of steelwork without a single accident, and the present time the work still going on.

THE MILWAUKEE ROAD

NAZI RALLY AT NUREMBERG

A Spectacular Review

(Special Air Mail Service)

London, Sept. 16.

The seventh Nazi Party rally began at Nuremberg to-day. The same excellent weather which attended the last two national gatherings of the party ushered in this year's rally, and bright sunshine lit up the old city walls, which have been profusely decorated with swastika flags and garlands of fir branches.

Herr Hitler arrived this evening by air from Munich and drove through the streets, attended by his deputy, Herr Hess, General Goring, Dr. Goebbels, and other Nazi leaders. Although the crowds which cheered the Führer as he drove past were large, as yet only the vanguard of the vast Nazi army which the rally will mobilize has arrived, although contingents are reaching the town each hour, and thousands of the Labour Corps will be arriving in special trains throughout the night.

THE CEREMONY

At the opening ceremony of the congress in the Town Hall, Herr Liebel, the Mayor, presented Herr Hitler with an imitation of the Imperial Sword, the possession of which had been for centuries the boast and pride of Nuremberg. In a brief reply, Herr Hitler thanked Nuremberg for the gift, expressing his appreciation of the efforts of the town to supply a dignified setting to the national congresses of the Nazi movement.

One noticeable characteristic of this year's rally is the great increase in the number of black uniformed special guards (S.S.). Altogether it is stated that the S.S. will number 20,000. About 13,000 of the special guards were employed to-day in lining the streets through which Herr Hitler passed and in forming cordons at the end of those streets immediately surrounding his hotel. In an address to the German and foreign Press representative this afternoon, Dr. Dietrich, the chief of the Reich Press Organization, described the foreign policy of the Nazi Party.

NATIONAL SOCIALISM

National Socialism [he said] puts forward the policy of co-operation between free and sovereign States with equal rights instead of the policy of the so-called collectivity of the victor States in the shadow of Versailles. The Geneva policy of an endless succession of ineffectual mammoth conferences which manage to keep in existence only by means of adjournments and procrastinations is one for which we wish to substitute the principle of direct negotiation between State and State, with immediate practical results, as in the case of the German-Polish treaty of friendship and the Anglo-German Navy Agreement. To the method of secret diplomacy we oppose the policy of frank speech and equality of negotiation between sovereign States. To the policy of the formation of blocs, the development of pact systems, and threatening military alliances in the form of pacts of mutual assistance, which only promote conflicts, we oppose the principle of pacts of non-aggression, the localization of conflicts, and thus the isolation of combatants, which increases the responsibility of statesmen in the interests of peace. Against the catchword of the indivisibility of peace we establish the practical peace policy of isolating war by removing in good time the essentials for war.

HOPE FOR THE SCOT

(Special Air Mail Service)

London, Sept. 16.

Great Britain as a whole has 24,000 fewer unemployed while the drop for Scotland is 14,000. Proportionately those are from the Scots point of view, particularly hopeful figures for the month.

It is true, of course, that Scotland's July record was bad, so that she had even more than her normal leeway to make up, but even then the gain is notable. For this is just the sort of movement which Scotland needs to see. To share fully in the better times which are coming to Britain she must gain on the gain which the whole island is making. Otherwise "prosperity" in the south and centre of England, where unemployment has never been high, may mean comparatively little to us north of the Tweed.

FIRST HOME

Of The Duke's Bride

(Special Air Mail Service)

London, Sept. 18.

The Duke of Gloucester and Lady Alice Montagu-Douglas-Scott are to live at Camberley (Surrey) for the first year of their married life.This is rendered necessary by the fact that the Duke is to be gazetted to an appointment at the Staff College, Camberley, writes Eric Hicks in the "Daily Mirror".Lady Alice told me this news in an exclusive interview at St. Pancras Station last night before she left for Scotland. She added:—"A house in Camberley has not yet been chosen, but it will not be a large establishment."I asked Lady Alice if she had yet decided upon the details of her bridal gown and her trousseau.
She replied: "No, not yet. I am still looking round."Asked whether Westminster Abbey was to be the scene of the wedding, Lady Alice replied, "I really do not know.""Have you yet become accustomed to the inevitable publicity that surrounds a public personage?" the "Daily Mirror" asked Lady Alice."Not yet," she answered with a rueful smile, "but I suppose I shall have to get used to it very soon."Lady Alice, who looked extremely well, left St. Pancras to return to her Scottish home with the same lack of ostentation which marked her arrival.Arriving at the station in a taxicab, she walked down the platform accompanied only by a porter wheeling her luggage, which included a number of new-looking milliners' and dressmakers' boxes.With the obvious intention of avoiding any chance of a public demonstration, Lady Alice reached the station with less than four minutes to spare.There is a strong rumour in Selkirk that the King and Queen will break their journey on their way back to London from Balmoral to call at Bowhill on a visit to the Duke and Duchess of Buccleuch.ELECTRIC WIZARD TO

London, Sept. 18

Mr. Ernest Gooch, the Maidstone inventor, who claims to have made electricity from powder, is not beaten yet.He said last night, "Yesterday something went wrong with one of my improvised transformers.
That might have happened at any time, or it might have been due to the sudden withdrawal of electricity from the mains in the house. But my invention was never connected to the mains in any way.""Mr. Hoadley, the Maidstone borough electrical engineer, has consented to examine my apparatus again, probably at the borough

BLACK FURY

No one is ever disappointed in Paul Muni. On the contrary he seems to grow in artistic stature with each succeeding picture. His work in "Scarface" in "I am a Fugitive from a Chain Gang" and "Bordertown" established him as one of the outstanding stars on either stage or screen. Now, in a role which matches in dramatic intensity, his portrayal of "The Fugitive from a Chain Gang" a greater Muni appears in the First National Picture "Black Fury" opening at the Queen's Theatre this Sunday, and sets a mark for artistry that will probably be unchallenged for this year.

It requires a great vehicle to give real opportunity to a great artist. "Black Fury" is that. Karen Morley has the role of the sweetheart. William Garvan is excellent as the treacherous mine policeman who betrays the simple girl and then discards her.

Others in the cast who are worthy of special mention for their portrayals include Vince Barnett, Henry O'Neill, Tully Marshall, Mae Marsh, Sarah Hadon, Willard Robertson and George Pat Collins.

THE INFORMER

It's a story as old as humanity itself, and yet it is still being learned and probably always will be the lesson that is brought out in RKO-Radio's "The Informer," coming on Wednesday to the King's Theatre. No man is greater than his weaknesses. And the most dangerous of all weaknesses is a beautiful woman!

Adam learned it when he was expelled from the garden of Eden. And the mischief-making powers of women did not die out with Eve, as history with its tales of Delilah, Helen of Troy, and Madame Pompadour attests. For a goodly percentage of the famous crimes of history and tremendous number of the obscure ones have been inspired by women.

Far more men, however, have been guided to worthy deeds and greatness by women than have been lured to their destruction.

This theme of the dominance of women over men has been powerfully employed by author Liam O'Flaherty in his treatment by Victor McLaglen, of "The Informer."

THE SECRET BRIDE

"The Secret Bride" is Barbara Stanwyck's finest dramatic production. Shown for the first time locally at the Queen's Theatre on Thursday, Miss Stanwyck's latest Warner Bros. picture held spectators in breathless suspense and new laurels for her emotional acting. She rises to new heights of dramatic talent in her role of a secret bride of the man who is obliged to prosecute her own father on a charge of bribery. As the secret bride, Miss Stanwyck visits her husband's apartment secretly at night and sees his chief investigator shot down in the courtyard. The man's sweetheart, who is secretary to her husband and arrested for the murder and prosecuted in a sensational court trial. Hoping to protect her husband and aid her father by concealing her marriage Miss Stanwyck keeps the knowledge of the murder to herself. Thrilling incidents follow in quick succession to the smashing climax during the impeachment trial of her father by the state legislature, where the murderer of the investigator and the financier accused of giving the bribe finally breaks down and confesses.

Warren William does a splendid piece of work as the attorney general and husband of Miss Stanwyck. He is both convincing and effective in a rather difficult part.

6 DAY BIKE RIDER

Joe E. Brown will be the feature attraction at the Oriental Theatre on Sunday, Monday and Tuesday. This time he appears as a "6 Day Bike Rider." As a bicycle rider Joe is a regular "fend," but he wins the race and his girl by the most novel and hilarious fluke imaginable.

Joe starts out as a village cutup who goes to the big city to show his girl, who has jilted him, and the rest of the neighbours, what a great guy he is. After getting into a terrific battle, landing in jail and being bailed out, he makes a mad rush for the races which have already started.

The race is the big climax to one of the most uproarious comedies in which the wide mouthed comedian has yet appeared. It is not only filled with riotous situations but is crammed with breathtaking thrills.

MR. CHURCHILL

Gives Daughter Away

(Special Air Mail Service)

London, Sept. 16. Mr. Winston Churchill gave away his eldest daughter, Mrs. Diana Bailey, when she was married to-day to Mr. Edwin Duncan Sandys, M.P. for Norfolk, at St. Ethelburga's Church, Bishopsgate, E.C.

Precautions were taken at the church to see that only the invited guests were admitted. They were asked their names at the door.

The bride, who carried a Prayer Book, was wearing a simple dress of stone grey, with hat to match, and a sable stole.

The service was conducted by the Rev. W. F. Gekke-Cobb, and the best man was Mr. Christopher Fuller.

After the ceremony, which was held up for a few minutes pending the arrival of Mrs. Winston Churchill and the bride's two sisters, a reception was held at Mrs. Winston Churchill's London home, Morpeth Mansions, S.W.

WORTH £100 IN MONEY

(Special Air Mail Service)

London, Sept. 16. Equal sympathy will be felt in America and England for Fred Perry, whose unlucky fall at Forest Hills probably prevented him from making the silver cup of the U.S. lawn tennis championship his own property.

It was universally expected that he would win the championship for the third year.

No foreign player has yet taken a cup—value, in money, £100—from Forest Hills. Since 1910, when William A. Larned won a second cup, only Tilden has won a cup outright. In fact, he has won two, in 1922 and 1925.

Allison who defeated Perry, lost to him at Forest Hills last year. But the match went to five sets, and largely on that score Allison was ranked No. 1 among U.S. players.

Sidney Wood, at his best a tennis genius, had not been at the top of his form lately. He restored his form, after a disastrous defeat by Frank Shields, by the curious remedy of taking to his golf clubs.

'Lady Haig's Answers In Diaries Case

(Special Air Mail Service)

London, Sept. 16. Answers have been lodged by Countess Haig and her publishers, Messrs Grant and Murray, 123 Princes Street, Edinburgh, to the petition for suspension and interdiction in the Petition Department of the Court of Session against the publication of Lady Haig's book on her late husband's life, entitled "The Man I Knew."

The petitioners, the majority of the trustees of the late Field Marshal Earl Haig, hold that Lady Haig's book would infringe the copyright of the Haig trustees in Earl Haig's diaries.

Interim interdiction against the publication of Lady Haig's book was granted by Lord Carmont last week.

Lady Haig, who is one of the three trustees, did not, it is stated in the answers, approve of the proposal that a biography should be written by Mr. Duff Cooper. The proper course, in her opinion, would be to publish the diaries in conformity with Earl Haig's desire.

Lady Haig explains that, when ill in May, 1933, she had been prevailed upon to acquiesce in the proposed biography.

Her ladyship states, however, she was not informed, regarding the terms of remuneration in connection with this work. She denies that Earl Haig's trustees, as such, had any right to make the diaries available to Mr. Duff Cooper or any other person, that right being vested in herself as custodian of these diaries.

IN DEFENCE OF HIS MEMORY

It is explained that in or about September, 1929, Lady Haig proposed to publish a biography of her husband with extracts from the diaries, and for that purpose received the approval of her co-trustees for this publication of the diaries up to the appointment of Earl Haig as Commander-in-Chief.

Thereafter certain developments took place which made Lady Haig anxious that her husband's diaries should be published as a whole so that they might speak for themselves in defence of his memory.

Her project of publishing a biography up to the time of the appointment of Earl Haig as Commander-in-Chief was therefore abandoned.

She requested her trustees to approve of the diaries being published. This request was refused.

THE DUFF COOPER BIOGRAPHY

Lady Haig felt so strongly about this refusal that she proposed at one stage to proceed to publish the diaries without the approval of her co-trustees. Ultimately, however, she was dissuaded from this extreme course because of the expense, by her co-trustees.

At the same time Lady Haig was further advised that she would be justified in instituting proceedings to prevent the diaries being made public place-meal as part of Mr. Duff Cooper's biography, as being inconsistent with the terms of the testator's settlement.

A further ground for restraining publication existed in that Mr. Cooper had made use of the material in the diaries notwithstanding the withdrawal of Lady Haig's consent as custodian to his doing so. But in spite of this the respondent was again dissuaded from taking action because of the expense and publicity which such proceedings would entail.

SUNDAY PAPER'S £10,000

Lady Haig was thereafter informed of certain arrangements proposed to be entered into between Mr. Duff Cooper and his publishers and a Sunday newspaper. In particular she learned that it was proposed that the diaries would be published by the newspaper as part of Mr. Duff Cooper's biography and in fragmentary form and that the newspaper should be entitled to select the portions which they desired to publish for a payment of £10,000, one half of which would be received by Mr. Duff Cooper.

Lady Haig objected strongly to fragmentary publication and she also objected to what she regarded as, and was advised would be, entirely inadequate return to the testator's trust estate for the rights proposed to be granted. She had from time to time requested to be informed of the precise nature of the arrangements entered into by the petitioners with Mr. Duff Cooper, but, so far, this information had not been accorded to her.

EARL HAIG'S OWN WISH

Ultimately she decided to publish "The Man I Knew," contending that she was entitled to make use of certain of the information in the diaries both as the recipient and the custodian of these.

Lady Haig had frequently expressed the wish that Lady Haig should write his "Life," and this could not be properly done without using the diaries.

The answers contend that Lady Haig's book is not and did not purport to be a publication of the diaries.

WORLD MISSIONARY CONFERENCE

(Special Air Mail Service)

London, Sept. 16. The question of holding a great world missionary conference in India or the Far East will be considered this month at the meeting of the International Missionary Council in Massachusetts.

Several missionary leaders are sailing to-morrow to attend this meeting, at which National Christian Councils and missionary organisations of some twenty different countries will be represented. Reports of the work of the International Missionary Council since the last meeting in Germany in 1932 will be presented, and plans will be laid for the next few years.

But the big question will be whether, in view of the many difficulties of the present world situation, they should hold an international missionary conference on the lines and of the dimensions of the Jerusalem conference in 1928. The date suggested is the autumn of 1938.

In order that the young Churches of India and the Far East could be well represented the proposed conference would probably be held in the East, and invitations have already been received from the National Christian Councils of Japan, China, and India.

LOAN TO CHINA

Protest From Japan?

(Special Air Mail Service)

London, Sept. 16. Reports that the Japanese Consul-General has protested against a loan by British interest to the Chinese Government to assist in the development of Chinese coal mines has given rise to some confusion in London.

As the protest has coincided with a campaign in a certain section of the Japanese Press against British financial and other activity in China, some circles are assuming that the visit of Sir Frederick Leith Ross to China is officially resented in Japan and that every effort will be made to keep China as a Japanese preserve.

NEED FOR FOREIGN CAPITAL

This is stated in a very high quarter to be a complete misunderstanding. Japan is anxious that China should be developed as a market as speedily as possible. She realises that this can only be done by investing large amounts of capital in China. She also realises that she herself has insufficient resources for the purpose.

It is therefore her aim to secure an international loan for China in which Great Britain and the United States, besides herself, shall participate. One of Sir Frederick Leith Ross's duties will be to prepare the way for this loan. Similar preparation will be made by an American mission which is expected shortly in China.

JAPAN'S DOMINANT POSITION

Japan, as China's nearest neighbour of the three, will expect to retain her position of dominance in China, but she has welcomed and is encouraging the participation of others in what is expected to prove one of the most fruitful markets in the world.

Her protest against this particular coal loan is, therefore, not a protest against foreign loans in general. It is merely asserted that the British group has infringed rights granted to Japan under a particular concession.

He will have a uniform similar to that of the King's personal pipers, who provide pipe music every morning at Balmoral. They are picked men, one of them, R. B. Nicol, being the champion piper of the gathering in 1932.

Pipe-major Macdonald is in a different category. He is of the class of Robin Oig, Rob Roy's son, and other famous pipers, and is regarded as the finest pibroch player in the world.

PRINCE ARRIVES IN BUDAPEST

(Special Air Mail Service)

London, Sept. 16. The Prince of Wales arrived here at half-past three this afternoon, travelling in a reserved coach of the ordinary Vienna-Budapest express. He had left Vienna just after 11 and had luncheon on the train. At the Hungarian frontier a special dining car with English-speaking waiters had been attached. The Prince greeted the first frontier policeman, who saluted him with the words in Hungarian "Jo napot" (Good day).

At Budapest the Prince was received by the Prefect, M. Ferenczi, and members of the British Legation staff.

To the hotel manager who was waiting in the hall of the Dunapalota to welcome him the Prince said: "I suppose you did not expect to see me back here again so soon. But it is nice to be back."

His first purchase, made on his way to the beautiful Budapest bathing and pleasure resort, Margaret Island, on the Danube, was a muzzle for his wire-haired fox-terrier—according to the police regulations.

GEORGE WHITE'S 1935 SCANDALS

To girls eager to act, George White, the producer who has developed more stars for stage and screen than any other theatrical man, offers the advice that they start at once to learn the tap steps and dance routines.

He suggests that these steps be learned at a local dance studios or even at home.

The creator and producer of "George White's 1935 Scandals," now playing at the King's Theatre, has to his credit fourteen outstanding musical revue successes on Broadway. He is famous for his ability to take unknown girls, develop their talent, and set them on the path leading to stardom on stage and screen.

"The dances in my second edition of Fox Film's "Scandals," he says, "look difficult and elaborate. Essentially they are simple, formed out of the fundamental routines. A student of tap who wishes to perfect himself or herself will find, by studying the dances in the picture, that each step is itself simple; but the combination of steps put together make the dance look difficult."

"Hard work, lots of exercise and a resolve to make yourself the best in the theatrical profession will soon earn recognition. A trip westward to Hollywood will reward your efforts."

He points out that Alice Faye, one of the stars in this all-star musical revue, came to Hollywood merely to give a minor song and dance for the first issue of the "Scandals." She was so good that she was made leading lady in the picture.

AROUND THE COURTS

AIDING AND ABETTING

The escape of a man who escaped from police custody after he was charged with breaking into a house and his subsequent arrest was related in the Kowloon Court yesterday before Mr. Wynne-Jones when two relatives of the accused Li Yan Hin a 33 year old unemployed and Li Mui a 35-year-old married woman were charged separately with having aided the defendant in escaping.

The accused man, who was remanded until Monday, was charged with breaking into a dwelling house at 4 a.m. on August 31, and stealing a gold wrist watch and a pair of spectacles belonging to Mr. G. W. Reid, manager of the A.P.C. Installation, Talkoktsui, escaping from legal custody, and assaulting P.C.C. 405.

Defendant admitted the first two charges and in answer to the third he stated that he just swung his arms about.

THE STORY

Sub-Inspector Cunningham, in outlining the case, stated that defendant escaped from the constable and returned to the house of his relatives and there a hammer and a chisel were procured and the handcuffs were knocked off his wrists. The woman, it was alleged, took the handcuffs to a public latrine and dumped them. A thorough search had been made of the latrine, but the handcuffs were not found. The prosecution asked that a serious view be taken of the case.

"It is a very serious matter," said his Worship, addressing the man. "That man (Li Chun-nam) was arrested for committing a felony; you assisted him, therefore you are an accessory after the fact." Sentence of three months' hard labour was passed.

On sentencing the woman to one month, his Worship remarked, "Possibly I think you are not so much to blame."

PRISONER'S DEATH

A death inquiry was conducted by Mr. Q. A. A. Macfadyen at the Central Magistracy yesterday on a prisoner who was serving nine months for returning from banishment and who died at the Victoria Gaol Hospital on Thursday at 3.15 a.m. The man was Li Kui aged 69.

The following was the jury empanelled: Messrs. Robert Choa (foreman), F. M. Britto and Lee Chiu Leung.

Chief-Warder H. Barrett deposed that the man was sentenced on July 20, and was admitted to hospital on September 21.

Dr. Ingram Shaw, prison medical officer, testified that the cause of death was pulmonary tuberculosis and heart failure. He stated that deceased's condition was very poor indeed on admission to hospital and there was no hope for him from the first. He did no hard labour.

The jury returned a verdict in accordance with the medical evidence.

MOTORISTS FINED

Several Europeans appeared before Mr. E. I. Wynne-Jones at the Kowloon Magistracy yesterday summoned for causing obstruction by leaving their cars in Peking Road at the exit of the Star Theatre from 3.30 p.m. to 11.50 p.m. on September 14.

Major Borava, of Harbour View Hotel, the driver of private car No. 757, admitted that he parked his car as stated in the summons and stated that he parked it within thirty yards of an Indian constable. Defendant looked at the constable and as he did not raise any objections, defendant assumed that it was all right.

The Magistrate stated that the constable might have waved defendant to another parking place, but he was not bound to do so. The onus, he said, was on the driver to find an authorised parking place.

Traffic-Inspector A. Nicol pointed out that if it had been a traffic constable, defendant would have been fined.

E. L. Groom, of Messrs. Gibb, Livingstone and Company, driver of private car No. 3174, pleaded guilty to a similar offence and was also fined.

NO LICENCE

Bandman Lawrence Ashworth, of the East Lancashire Regiment, stationed at Shamshui, admitted a summons for driving motor-cycle No. 170 at Castle Peak Road near Poho Street at 3 p.m. on September 14 without a licence, and was cautioned.

LANTAU ISLAND MURDER

The case in which five men, Pun Kam-chol, Ho Wah, Ho Yau, Pun Tak and Lau Cheung are charged with the murder of Hau Wan-fai at Chuk Ko Wan Village, Lantau Island, on September 1 last year, was continued before Mr. W. Schofield at the Central Magistracy yesterday.

After formal evidence was produced, Mr. W. J. Lockhart-Smith, who conducted the prosecution, closed his case.

Pun Kam-chol, the first accused, giving evidence said that he lived at Chuk Ko Wan Village. Continuing defendant said "I am accused of the murder of Hau Wan-fai, but I took no part in it. I am falsely accused of the crime." Witness further stated that he left home because people had been looking for him and he was frightened. He did that on the evening after the murder had taken place. He was then confused and was undecided as to where he should go. Eventually he went to live at two different places and returned to his house at Chuk Ko Wan on February 18 last. He was taken ill and went to the Kwong Wah Hospital for treatment, where he was arrested. On the night of the murder defendant stated that he was at home at Chuk Ko Wan with his wife, his daughter and daughter-in-law. He was ill and was in bed the whole night.

Cross-examined by Mr. Lockhart-Smith, accused said that he ran away from the house because his son had been to deceased's hut on that day and he was afraid he would be implicated.

After Mr. Lockhart-Smith had cross-examined the accused further the case was adjourned until Wednesday October 9.

NAVAL COURT MARTIAL

A naval court martial comprised of the following: Captain Hamrick (H.M.S. Duncan) President, Captain Half-Hide (H.M.S. Taranul), Captain Waller (H.M.S. Tamar), Commander Legg (H.M.S. Dockyard), Commander Bridges (H.M.S. Lowestoft), and Lt-Commander Sweney, sat on board H.M.S. Tamar yesterday to try the case against Paymaster-Lieutenant H.E.C. Wright of H.M.S. Tamar on charges of forging and uttering, fraudulent conversion and neglect of duty. The sum involved was $1,200.20.

The accused was represented by Mr. H. C. Macnamara, instructed by Mr. O. E. C. Marton, of Messrs. Deacons, while Paymaster-Commander E. E. Brightman had charge of the prosecution.

Evidence was given in the course of the day's hearing after which it was adjourned.

ILLEGAL SLAUGHTER

Li Yee (22) shop fck, Lo Kon (36) salesman were charged before Mr. Q. A. A. Macfadyen at the Central Magistracy yesterday with slaughtering a pig on the second floor of No. 7 Sal Street and using a counterfeit of the official mark used for beef, mutton and pork. They admitted the charges and were fined $25 or one month's hard labour each on the first charge, and an additional six weeks' each on the second.

For the prosecution Senior Sanitary Inspector stated that on September 2 at about 8.20 a.m. Sanitary Inspector Stevens inspected the premises. He found the carcass hanging in the house and upon examination it was found to be still warm. Further investigation revealed the counterfeit impressions of chops.

SMART SENTENCE

Convicted on charges of driving private car No. 988 without a driver's licence in Queen's Road East, at 10.55 p.m. on October 2 and of driving in a dangerous manner and driving without the owner's permission, Mui Lam a 19 year old apprentice fitter was fined $25 or, in default, three weeks' hard labour on the third charges, all the sentences to run consecutively.

Traffic Sergeant Blackburn said he noticed the car being driven in a zig-zag manner, but on the proper side of the road. He went up with the intention of summoning the defendant, but the man got out of the car and ran up St. Francis Yard. He chased and arrested him.

Mr. Schofield imposing sentence, remarked that he took a very serious view of the case because cars driven by unqualified persons were most dangerous.

DRUG ADDICTS

While on patrol duty in the early hours of yesterday Sergt. L. J. Wagland scented opium from the doorway of 104 Wellington Street and upon investigation four men who were on the premises at the time were arrested and charged before Mr. Q. A. A. Macfadyen at the Central Magistracy yesterday.

The four men were Ng Chi, 47, Tang Fat, 65, Leung Lam 66, and Tsol King, 28.

Ng Chi and Tang Fat were charged with preparing opium, while Ng Chi was further charged with keeping a dvan on the premises, and with possession of 2.2 taels of illicit opium, while Tang Fat, Leung Lam and Tsol King were charged with smoking opium.

The Magistrate discharged Ng Chi and Tang Fat on the first charge as the opium water submitted for analysis did not contain sufficient for a definite report. On the other charges Ng Chi was fined $400 or four months' hard labour while the smokers were fined $3, or five days each.

Cabaret Girl Jumped Bail

Alice Luk, a cabaret dancer failed to put in an appearance before Mr. W. Schofield at the Central Magistracy yesterday when her case was called. She was summoned for keeping an unregistered mul-tai, Ting Ying, aged 12, at No. 46 Morrison Hill Road, and for having ill-treated her on September 25 and on previous dates.

Mr. Schofield accordingly estreated the defendant's bail of $2,000, and also issued a warrant for her arrest.

At the previous hearing last Thursday, the child was produced in Court. She bore several marks of bruising and burning and presented a pitiful sight.

"Always Tired?"
"YOU must strengthen your nerves with SANATOGEN"

"Revitalize your nerves by taking Sanatogen." That is what your doctor will advise you, when listlessness, lack of appetite, or fretful sleep are robbing you of your health and joy of life.

For physicians know that all these complaints have their roots in one and the same cause: weakness of the nerves. And it is only by strengthening your nerves, that you can regain your former health and vitality.

Strengthen your nerves with Sanatogen—the true tonic food. Sanatogen contains the very elements that build bodily health and vital strength—phosphorus and protein. Sanatogen will make you feel stronger, healthier and consequently happier—even after a short course.

"I never hesitate to recommend Sanatogen to my patients in case of nervous exhaustion, and it gives very beneficial results. I do not obtain such results with the usual tonics."

writes a well-known English physician.

Over 25,000 physicians have given Sanatogen similar enthusiastic recommendations, because Sanatogen must do good. Start taking it to-day, then you will soon enjoy once again the feeling of radiant vitality and strength, that makes life worth living.

The Proven STOMACH REMEDY for Bad Cases

Amazing evidence of the remarkable speed with which indigestion and stomach pains can be stopped has been revealed by medical experiments, and X-ray photographs of actual cases. These prove the ingredients of "Bisurated" Magnesia to be the quickest-acting and most effective known to medical science. Within 5 minutes a teaspoonful of "Bisurated" Magnesia in a little water produced complete relief in cases where numerous other remedies had failed entirely.

Its Action Explained—
Simply take a teaspoonful of the powder in a little water. The moment this soothing draught reaches the tortured stomach it begins to soothe the sour, fermenting undigested food. The contents of the stomach become as bland and soothing as milk to the sensitive stomach lining. The pain quickly lessens and presently disappears. By following up the treatment after each meal your harassed stomach will soon lose its tenderness and grow strong. Until you can eat whatever you like and enjoy every meal, without fear of wind and pain.

A NOTED
ENGLISH DOCTOR SAYS:

"I find that 'Bisurated' Magnesia taken after my meals is the only thing that keeps me free from pain and discomfort, and I take it regularly. I often prescribe it for my patients, and have had very good results."

H.G. — M.A., M.R.C.S., L.R.C.P.
ANOTHER DOCTOR SAYS:
"Bisurated" Magnesia gives excellent results and is the ideal remedy for stomach pains and acidity. It is particularly recommended for Dyspepsia, Gastritis, Stomach Pains, Flatulence, and even Stomach Ulcers."

ST. STEPHEN'S GIRLS' COLLEGE

Hold Their Annual Speech DayLADY POLLOCK CONGRATULATES
STAFF AND GIRLS

Lady Pollock who distributed certificates and prizes to the successful candidates of the St. Stephen's Girls' College yesterday said that the secret of the school's successes lay in the fact that the Spirit of Fellowship and Service was unselfishly adhered to by members of the staff and the girls alike.

The Right Rev. Bishop Hall who spoke at the close of the function associated himself with these remarks and reminded those who had received certificates at the hands of Lady Pollock to continue in the good work as by so doing they would be spreading sunshine to others.

Bishop Hall went on to say that he was glad to see that the School had already started in another branch of good work. Some eight deaf and dumb girls had been taken care of by the girls who are coaching them in the art of learning.

The Bishop concluded by saying that the School had obtained the best results in the examination—the best the School had ever experienced.

He congratulated the school on a splendid year of work and in the example of service to their fellow women.

THOSE PRESENT

There was a large gathering of relatives and friends and amongst these present were:

Messrs. G. R. Sayer (Director of Education), J. Ralston (Inspector of English Schools), Hon. Dr. S. W. Tso, Mrs. R. H. Kowkai, Mr. Kwok Shu Lau, Rev. G. K. Carpenter, Rev. H. W. Baines, Rev. J. R. Higgs, and many others.

Prior to the distribution of prizes the gathering was treated to a musical concert in which the students delighted with songs, drill and music. An act entitled "Coriolanus" given by the students was well received. The players delivered their lines well and showed their intimate knowledge of the English language.

THE REPORT

In presenting her report the headmistress said:—

It is a long time since we had the pleasure of welcoming you here to a Speech Day function, as the beginning of the school year has now been changed to September and Speech Days will now be held in the Autumn instead of the Spring.

During the past year our numbers have remained about the same and the health of the girls has been good.

In the June School Leaving Certificate Examination our percentage of passes (84%) was good. Out of 19 candidates, 16 passed, of whom 10 were qualified for Matriculation. Of these, two gained Honours, one, Lai Chung Yue with distinction in Algebra and Trigonometry. One girl gained distinction in Biblical Knowledge. She has now entered the H.K. University, one the University of Shanghai, and three have gone to Lingnam University, Canton. Of all the women students at the H.K. University numbering 55, 16 are now old S.S.G.C. girls.

While I am reporting on examination results, I would like to mention the successes of Old Girl's this year. Kwok Wai Fun and Kwok Pui Chee have graduated from the Faculty of Arts in the H.K. University, Ruth Ling from Lingnam University; she also received a golden key for being first in the Examination. Esther Lien has returned from Germany where she was studying music, after having passed her L.R.A.M. examination in London, and Caroline Braga has just won a Fellowship of Trinity College, London.

I am reminded of St. Paul's words "Knowledge puffeth up but love edifieth." May all this knowledge go hand in hand with humble love and so minister to the needs of mankind.

SPORT

In the playground we have won for a second time the Senior Cup of the Netball League, though we lost the Intermediate Cup. I would like to add that most of our Senior Team was composed of First Form girls, who showed they could play together as a team, as well as they could work together as a class. We shall miss them this season.

In an inter-school competition for Chinese Essays Ruby Chan won the prize, but I feel we ought here to give the honour to St. Paul's Girls' College, where she learnt her Chinese before coming to St. Stephen's. The prize for the English Essay Competition in connection with the Morrison Centenary Celebrations was won by Maud Lee.

For years now a Free School for poor children has been run by voluntary workers from among the girls. This year the scholars numbered 60, and 14 girls gave up time on half-holidays, to come to teach the children, who are drawn from these streets just below us. On Sundays, another band of volunteers visit the women and children in the G.O.H.

The Sale of Work last year, run in connection with Fairies, realised over $2600; the money was given to M.C.L. Funds, and other charities. The girls also had a stall at the Diocesan Bazaar in December. Owing to the kindness of very many friends we were able, last November, to hold an International Exhibition in this Hall. I wish more people could have seen it. It began in a small way, but grew to something quite big and very well worth studying. The Exhibition itself was an act of International goodwill, and friendship, as the exhibits were lent us by friends of many nationalities.

THE STAFF

There have been many changes on the Staff. We are glad to welcome Mrs. Li, Miss Yue and Miss Chu, also in the Kindergarten Miss Lo and Miss To both old girls.

Miss Wise has been to Australia and back again, Miss Baxter having returned from England in time to take her place while she was away. Miss Wood left us last Summer. We were very sorry she could not come back, for she had laid very sound foundations to our Science work and her enthusiasm over games, Camp and other school activities, was infectious. She has been greatly missed, but we know she is making links between East and West in an English school, and we wish her all blessing on her work. Miss Westcott is now in charge of Games and Drill. Mr. Mason's retirement was a great loss to us, he did a great deal to develop our powers of singing, and we are very grateful to him. We welcome Mrs. Walton in his place. Our thanks are due too to Miss Hancock who has filled gaps left by people on furlough and Mr. Carpenter for his help in taking Trigonometry after Miss Pope's departure. Mrs. Price and Mrs. Carpenter for their help in the Kindergarten. Miss Li Luk Wa, both student and teacher here in the past, has been to Chicago this year together with an old student of Fairies, to train as a teacher of deaf and dumb children. They have this term opened a school for the deaf and dumb in Hong Kong. Eight children are being taught and thus given a chance to live a normal life.

PARENTS' DAY

In the Spring we held a Parents' Day, to which parents were invited to see the work being done in the school. I was very glad so many came and I hope you will come again, and again, to see what we are doing, and if necessary, to help us with your criticisms. The prosperity of the School depends in much on the co-operation of Parents and Staff.

The music certificates (40 in number) gained in the Trinity College London Examinations in 1935 were distributed that day and to-day we have the 1934 set. Miss Braga is to be congratulated on her successes. And here may I record my appreciation of the work and loyal co-operation of all the Staff. Mr. Yung as he directs the afternoon work and all who contribute to the smooth working of the School.

EXTENSION

Last year I spoke of our plans for building a new Kindergarten, since then another way of meeting our needs has developed and the building of that school is not necessary. As you know for years Fairies and St. Stephen's have shared this building. The time has now come in our history when it is no longer big enough for us both, so Fairies will soon move to a new building in Kowloon and St. Stephen's will spread over this building. When we have the extra room among other things I should like to see established a Home Economics or Domestic Science Department, where those whose talents do not lie perhaps in higher Mathematics and kindred subjects, may be trained in more practical ways for the life they will lead, which does not necessarily involve a University Career.

LADY POLLOCK

Lady Pollock then distributed the prizes after which she addressed the gathering as follows: I think Speech Day sounds so terribly alarming!—however I am not going to make a speech, but there are just one or two things I should like to say.

First of all, I would like to express the great pleasure it gives me to be here to-day. I always think that it is an honour to be asked to present the Certificates at St. Stephen's College, and I thank Miss Atkins for conferring on me that honour and giving me that pleasure.

In handing out Certificates one has no opportunity of saying anything to those who receive them, so I will take this opportunity of congratulating all those girls who have done so well in the School Leaving Certificate Examinations, and I wish them every success at the various Universities to which they are going, or whatever future work they may undertake. There is plenty of work in the world waiting to be done. Then I am sure you will all wish to join me in congratulations to the 5 Old Girls on their successes, two sisters—Kwok Wai Fun, Kwok Pui Chee—on having graduated from the Faculty of Arts in the Hong Kong University and Ruth Ling from the Lingnam University.

CREDIT TO SCHOOL

Then in Music we congratulate Esther Lien on having passed her L. R. A. M. Examination in London.

Last but not least, our congratulations to Caroline Braga for having won a Fellowship of Trinity College of Music, London. We look forward to hearing more of her music in Hong Kong.

All these successes reflect great credit of St. Stephen's College.

And lastly I want to congratulate all of you students on the success of your Annual Sale of Work. We have just heard that last year you realised the sum of $2,800.00. Simply marvellous! How do you do it? I should so much like to know.

You will wonder why I am so particularly interested in your "Sale of Work."

not like an overdraft at the Bank.

The Cathedral Women's Guild have been asked to make suggestions of Ways and Means of getting rid of this overdraft, or at least of reducing it.

Among other Ways and Means of course a Sale of Work was suggested.

This was not met with any enthusiasm. Several people said "Oh No" you can never make much out of "A Sale of Work"!

It seems we must come to St. Stephen's Girls' College to learn how to run a successful Sale.

TEAM WORK

I do not think we need to go far to find the secret of your success.

It lies in the "Team Work" of all you students working unselfishly and continuously for the good of others throughout the year.

It lies also in the Spirit of Fellowship and Service which goes through everything in this College—these are the secrets of your success.

I congratulate Miss Atkins, the Staff, and of your students on this Spirit of Fellowship and Service, and I hope it may continue to inspire you in whatever you undertake whether it be Work or Play.

LONDON'S SKYWARD SKY LINE

London's sky line is rising. The roofscape seen from the Thames shows what the invasion of modernity is doing to the haunts of men, so vividly described by novelists and essayists of an earlier day. Still further alterations are in prospect. Adelphi Terrace is doomed to go. The work of demolition will be begun early next year. Thus one of the most interesting of literary landmarks will pass.

Few places in London compare with Adelphi in literary values. Dickens knew its vaults and arches. Often he lingered along its quiet front to gaze at barges and ships going up and down with the tide. Tom Hood, whose "Song of the Shirt" still rings in the ears of many a school-boy, spent his early days in the neighbourhood. Samuel Pepys lived but a few doors away. Charles Lamb could scarcely miss it in his walks from the Temple. Benjamin Franklin had residence in the terrace when he was agent for the American Colonies.

Of modern authors the list would be difficult to enumerate. Thomas Hardy studied architecture in Adelphi. George Bernard Shaw and Sir James M. Barrie made their abode in its spacious flats, and the Savage Club, with its widely varying talents, found a quiet retreat for nearly half a century in premises which it must now vacate. Book publishers and literary agencies clung to the terrace as newspapers hitherto have done to Fleet Street, impelled no doubt to some extent by the traditions with which it has been covered.

One by one the buildings hallowed by time and mellowed by usage go down before the demands of a new era, an age in which the symbols even of a single generation are entirely out of tune. The march of progress spares neither memories nor relics of spacious leisurely days. And so Adelphi is to see a towering block rear its modern head above its soot-encrusted friends, a block whose ten stories will harmonize more with the giants of the post-war era than with the humbler but more historic associates of its long and fruitful career.

DR. GOEMBOES LEAVES

On leaving Germany after a short stay, the Hungarian Premier, Dr. Goemboes, despatched a telegram to the Fuehrer thanking him for the hospitality shown during his stay in the country and expressing astonishment at the progress made in that country since 1933 when Dr. Goemboes last visited it.—

CLAMOUR FOR SANCTIONS

Sharp Division In French Press

Paris, Oct. 4.

The clamour for the enforcement of sanctions is growing in intensity and the convocation of the Foreign Affairs Committee of the Chamber is demanded on all sides in order to debate the question immediately.

The Press is sharply divided. The Right Wing newspapers are resolutely hostile to sanctions, while the Left Wing unanimously demand strict application of the covenant against Italy.

The "Echo de Paris" declares that it is impossible for us to strike a Latin sister nation back merely in order to make history for negroes and please the English.

On the other hand, the "Peuple" declares that if solemn engagements are violated it will open the way for war. Where Fascist Italy has passed Hitlerist Germany will not wait long to pass also.—
Reuter.

LIKELY STEPS

Paris, Oct. 4.

The first step in sanctions is likely to be the refusal of credit to the aggressor and raising the arms embargo in favour of the attacked.

The second step is prohibiting the export of raw materials, followed by boycott of the aggressor's goods, but as this might lead to a blockade it is believed that it will be only applied as a last resource.—

HOME PRESS COMMENT

Time For Action Has Arrived

London, October 4.

The "Times" commenting on the events in East Africa, says that no modern State ever took less trouble to find an excuse for war than Italy in the present situation.

As a leading Power and guarantor of the peace, she has completed years of military preparation and has launched a great war of conquest and spoliation against a fellow member of the League.

The contents of the Italian note are not flattering in their sense of humour nor to the intelligent good faith of the nations in the League.

There should be no vacillation or confusion of British policy from the members of the League prepared to tolerate an act of unprovoked aggression. The covenant and pact of Paris are now dead.

The "Daily Herald" says that the time for action has arrived and sanctions must be put into operation thoroughly and immediately.

The "Daily Mail" and "Daily Express" continue to urge Britain not to mingle in a quarrel which does not concern her.—
Reuter.

CHINESE PRESS VIEWS

"No Justice For The Weak"

Shanghai, Oct. 4.

News of the Italo-Ethiopian hostilities dominates the front pages of the Chinese newspapers, usually devoted to domestic affairs. Keeping up with their European contemporaries the Chinese press publishes war maps and comment editorially upon the outbreak of war.

"Oh, League, what are you going to do?" asked the "Lih Pao" in a big headline.

The "China Times" speculates as to whether the present hostilities will lead to a new world war, and if so, what effect it will have upon the Far East and Central China.

The "Daily News" cynically remarks that Britain and France, upon whom the future developments depend, are merely looking after their own interests and are not actuated by any love for Ethiopia. "There is no justice for the weak," the paper says.—

AIRMAIL GREETINGS TO HONG KONG

First Visit Of Imperial Airways Aircraft

The following communication from the Managing Director of Imperial Airways Ltd., Airway Terminus, Victoria Station, London, S.W.1, dated September 23, was received by the "Hong Kong Daily Press" last evening:—

"The letter, conveying to you the compliments and greetings of Imperial Airways, was carried to Hong Kong in our air-liner 'Dorado', on the occasion of the first visit to Hong Kong by an Imperial Airways aircraft.

"The importance of an air service linking Hong Kong with the England-Australia route being fully realised by the Directors of Imperial Airways, they have decided that 'Dorado' shall carry out a series of test flights on a route from Penang to Hong Kong via Saigon and Tourane—Penang being chosen as the point of contact with the main route owing to the facility with which connections can be established there with the through services operating in both directions.

"The flight which brings you this letter is the first of the air surveys that are being made between Penang and Hong Kong; and 'Dorado' will follow up these preliminary surveys by effecting a series of test flights in each direction, thereby gaining the operational experience which is necessary before a regular service can be instituted, as we hope it will be in the near future.

"The value of air despatch from the point of view of accelerating Empire correspondence will be demonstrated by the fact that letters will travel between Hong Kong and London, by the flying mail when a regular service is in operation, in 9½ days, as compared with 19-24 days by the fastest surface transport.

"As an evidence of the progress that is being made in Empire transport by air, it may be mentioned that in the six years since Imperial Airways established the Cairo-Karachi service, the routes operated by the Company and its associated enterprises have increased from 2,200 miles to approximately 20,500 miles, while active steps are in hand at the present time with both aircraft and equipment, for the establishment within two years of a system of bulk transport of mails on the main Empire routes.

"It is with particular pleasure, therefore, that we send you this greeting on the eve of widespread air developments, realising as we do the importance of the part that Hong Kong is destined to play in the growth of a great interconnected system of Imperial air routes."

ARRIVAL OF THE AIRLINER

Leaving Fort Bayard an hour after noon, the four-engined liner of the Diana type named 'Dorado', piloted by Captain W. Armstrong arrived at Kai Tak yesterday afternoon, precisely at 2.45 o'clock, and made a perfect landing.

The machine was met by a party of local officials which included the Honourable Commander G. F. Hole, R.N., (retired), Director of Air Services and the Adjutant of the Royal Air Force, Kai Tak Base.

The airman looked singularly fit and it was revealed that they will stay in Hong Kong for five days, before returning to Penang over almost the same route as was covered in their flight here.

With the survey of this route which the Imperial Airways contemplate establishing between Penang and Hong Kong, it was said that the idea was quite practicable judging from the results already gained. It was only an experimental flight and the first of trial flights will leave Penang on October 24, after the arrival of the service from England.

The present flight left Penang on Wednesday (October 2) and arrived that night at Saigon. From this port they made a hop over to Tourane in French Indo-China, where they spent Thursday night. Fort Bayard was the next port of call before arrival in the Colony.

Besides the pilot, the crew comprises N. Richardson (First Officer) D. A. Hands (Flight Engineer) and W. Chapman (Wireless Operator).

TWO THOUSAND ETHIOPIANS KILLED IN OGADEN

ITALY ATTACKING ON ALL FRONTS

"Friendship Or Death"

The Italians are now advancing on all fronts. The first thrust was from Eritrea into Tigre province in the north of Abyssinia where the Italians crossed the Mareb River and advanced on a twenty kilometre front without any opposition.

Advancing twelve miles into Abyssinian territory, they occupied Dareb Teclé, and began their march on Adowa twelve miles away. They clashed with Ras Seyoum's forces and it is reported that the latter suffered a reverse.

Meanwhile the Italians took up the offensive from Italian Somaliland into Ogaden province, the scene of the Walwal incident. Heavy fighting is reported here and the Ethiopian losses are placed at 2,000 killed and many wounded.

"Accept Italian friendship or die," is the slogan dropped from aeroplanes in Tigre province urging the people to separate from Ethiopia and choose their own king.

Diredawa despatches state that the Italians are bombing their way from Moussa Ali on the extreme corner of Eritrea across the Aussa plain with perhaps the railway as the objective. The tribesmen in the Danakil desert region have been seized with terror at their first sight of aeroplanes.

The League Council Committee will meet this morning to investigate whether an act of aggression has taken place and decide on further action. While opinion in the French Press is sharply divided, there is a clamour in France for sanctions and a demand for a debate on this issue.

CROSSING OF MAREB RIVER

Twelve Miles Advance Into Abyssinia

Rome, Oct. 4. Report from Asmara state that the columns of all arms which crossed the Mareb River at dawn yesterday morning presented a picturesque sight.

The vanguard was led by Eritrean cavalry, the white uniforms and equipment jingling as the horses clattered over the bridge. Then came marching the infantry in tropical khaki uniforms with fast light tanks rattling past their ranks bringing with machine guns. Light cannon came next, light guns, and lorries carrying stores, while overhead aeroplanes carefully reconnoitered the ground to forestall any attempts at ambush.

No resistance was encountered from the Abyssinians who had been ordered to avoid a pitched battle.

The road to Abyssinia is a new track, but it can be used by motor cars.

The Italians advanced twelve miles into Abyssinian territory and occupied Dareb Teclé at a height of 6,800 feet above the sea, commanding a hollow plateau. Adowa is a further twelve miles way.

In the evening before the advance there were scenes of enthusiasm at Asmara and Mogadishio, the towns being bedagged and illuminated, while patriotic songs were sung.—Reuter.

OPERATIONS ON THE FIRST DAY

Rome Communique

Rome, October 4. A communique announced that yesterday divisions of Army Black Shirts and native troops crossed the frontier and advanced across difficult rocky terrain on a front of twenty kilometres with no opposition.

The population met the Italians waving a white flag. Food was distributed to the people who were in a state of extreme misery. The air force carried out three reconnaissance flights over Nacelle and beyond River Tacaze, scattering food and distributing propaganda leaflets.

Two bombing squadrons are replying to a violent fusillade from rifles and artillery and bombarded the Ethiopian armed forces at Adowa and Adigrat.

At night time they consolidated their position and at dawn the advance was renewed on all fronts in Eritrea.

The morale of the troops is very high.—Reuter.

ACROSS MAREB RIVER

Order Given To March

Asmara, October 3. General Debono, the Italian High Commissioner for East Africa, has formally proclaimed the opening of hostilities. He confirms that troops have been ordered to cross the Mareb River in order to ensure the tranquillity of the population.

He accused the Ethiopian Government of violating all treaties, in his proclamation, and declares the present step of the Italian Army is taken in the interests of peace. He urges the population to remain calm.

The proclamation was written in Italian, Amharic and Arabic and is addressed to the local population, declaring: "Italy for forty years has ensured the peace and tranquillity of the Mareb region, enriching the country and governing it justly. Italy has directed all efforts to securing the friendship of Ethiopia, in accordance with the treaties, but Ethiopia's behaviour has failed to keep its promises and has violated the treaties, has caused ruin and murder in Eritrea and Somaliland, and instead of showing gratitude for the Italian goodwill has assailed the Italian border posts, and insulted Italy, which nation the Ethiopians have long been preparing to attack."

"WE SHALL DEFEND YOU"
"Already in Libya, Eritrea and Somaliland you have mingled your blood with ours. You will therefore be our sons. We shall defend you."

"In order that your lands may not be damaged by war," the proclamation continues, "and in order to help many in the Tigre (Ethiopian Province) and other regions which invoke our intervention, I have ordered the troops to cross the Mareb."

The proclamation urges that religious heads of the people continue their prayers in order that "with the help of God the war which we are waging for the triumph of justice may soon end in victory."

The proclamation concludes: "Woe to him who spreads false news or disturbs the public order. I shall be inexorable."—Reuter.

HEART-RENDING SCENES

Air Bombardment At Adowa

Addis Ababa, Oct. 3. Heart-rending scenes are reported from Adowa both during and after the bombardment by Italian war planes. The wives and children of many of the soldiers, who themselves are encamped outside the town, have been killed.

The planes flew at a low altitude but it is stated that no anti-aircraft guns were brought into action against them. Adowa was an undefended town.

No fighting has been reported up to the present from the Ogaden front, where the armies are close to contact point.

Ras Seyoum, one of Ethiopia's war chiefs, commanding a powerful body of tribesmen, reports heavy artillery fire from the Italian lines to the north of Adowa. It is presumed that this is the prelude to an assault by infantry and tanks, if the latter can travel through the rough country.—Reuter.

FOREIGNERS PREPARE FOR AIR RAID

Flood Of Rumours From Addis Ababa

(Special to the "Hong Kong Daily Press" (Copyright).)
(By Telegraph, Copyright, Telegraphic Messages Ordinance, 1897)
Received, (October 3, 4.30 p.m.)

Addis Ababa, October 4. The first day of the war ended with a veritable flood of rumours. One of these asserted that the Italian Minister and his staff were being detained as hostages by the Abyssinian Government.

The rumour, which was evidently due to the fact that the Italian Legation building had been occupied by cavalry and infantry detachments on Thursday evening, was probably unfounded, since it appears more likely that the occupation was merely a precautionary measure taken to protect the Legation staff from the enraged masses till their departure from the capital on Friday morning in a special train which was already standing in readiness at the station.

The Italian Legation, however, was completely cut out from the outside world, as Europeans, although allowed to enter the building, were not permitted to leave again.

According to another rumour prevalent on Thursday night numerous spies have been arrested and put to death in the capital. Although it is difficult to learn any details, the rumour appears to be partly confirmed by the fact that a number of rather well-known Europeans, mostly persons of doubtful nationality, have disappeared since Wednesday. It will be recalled that the Abyssinian authorities some time ago intimidated that they knew well the extent of Italian espionage and would take effective steps immediately after the opening of hostilities.

The Government announced that Abyssinians found guilty of espionage on behalf of Italy or of having otherwise assisted the enemy will immediately be put to death by hanging.

AIR RAID PRECAUTIONS
Although it is generally expected that the capital will be "bombarded from the air on Saturday," the population is not showing any signs of panic.

The majority of Europeans, it is declared, immediately after day-break, will seek refuge under bomb-proof shelters, prepared by the legations. The residences of some Europeans have been completely encircled with deep moats, and are being protected by armed guards. The British Minister on Thursday distributed several gas masks among the European residents.—Reuter.

ALARM AT CAPITAL
Addis Ababa, Oct. 3. Anti-aircraft guns are now mounted at all strategic points here and there is an atmosphere of war pervading the capital. A certain amount of alarm prevails in foreign commercial circles, but the Ethiopians themselves are remaining calm.

The Emperor has ordered the release of 7,000 prisoners and this morning they proceeded to the front.

Five thousand mounted and foot police are assuming the protection of the capital.

It is stated that the Italian Legation staff may be kept in Addis Ababa as hostages.—Reuter.

LEAGUE PUZZLED
Geneva, Oct. 3. Events to-day outstripped even the accelerated procedure of the League of Nations and the Committee of Thirteen found itself confronted with a situation with which it was unable to deal.

It was therefore decided to convene a meeting of the League Council on Saturday morning. Meanwhile, the Committee of Thirteen will inform the Ethiopian Government that in view of the latest development the despatch of neutral observers to watch the frontier and to decide which side first took the offensive was no longer necessary.

There is confusion in Geneva from the fact that Italian and Ethiopian reports conflict directly. The Italians insist that the report that Adowa was bombed by Italy admitted. It is stated that a squadron commanded by Mussolini's son-in-law, Count Ciano, was fired on by Ethiopians while making a reconnaissance flight, but continued to Adowa, where the fort opened fire. The Italian planes thereupon bombed the town with guns.

None of the Italian planes was hit, and the allegation that a hospital was bombed is declared to be baseless.—Reuter.

BOMB MASSACRE
The Abyssinian note says: "Have received your communication. The Ethiopian Government notes the Italian admission and Italian responsibility for invading the province of Agami and for bombardment of two open towns and massacre of women and children and of hospitals bearing the visible insignia of the Red Cross, and describing these attacks as necessary measures as defence and interpreting the withdrawal of our troops to thirty kilometres from the frontier as a strategic move. This is in reply to reiterated Ethiopian demands for arbitration at a pacific settlement since December 1934."

BRUTAL AGGRESSION
Italy began despatch of troops and armaments in August 1934 and only intensified her warlike proposals following the procedure by council. Notwithstanding our proposal for a pacific settlement, Italy has begun to carry out her warlike aim on unarmed Ethiopia. LEAGUE CONFUSED

Geneva, Oct. 3.

The League of Nations has again been thrown into a state of confused indecision by to-day's events.

It is faced with the difficulty of deciding whether aggression has been committed, and by whom. The matter is fraught with too grave consequences for the Council to accept unsubstantiated statements from either side, for if aggression is established the Council must probably will call upon that side to withdraw to its original lines. It will make other recommendations designed to put an end to hostilities. Then, all else failing, it must bring pressure to bear.

Such action would necessitate an extraordinary meeting of the League Assembly, which is not convenient until the end of next week.—Reuter.

Imperial Government hereby reiterates its firm resolve to co-operate fully with the Council within the framework of the League of Nations covenant.

MR. EDEN ARRIVES
The British Minister for League Affairs, Mr. Anthony Eden, arrived in Geneva this morning and attended a meeting of the Council Committee of Thirteen which is acting under instructions of the Council to frame a report and recommendations in accordance with Article 15.

LEGATIONS GUARDED
The Italian Legation at Addis Ababa is reported to be heavily guarded by troops including units from the Emperor's personal bodyguard, and this morning the Italian Minister was still in the Abyssinian capital. Italian troops are guarding the legation in Rome where the Abyssinian Minister still remains.—British Wireless.

FOOTBALL NOTES

Last Week's Games Reviewed

(By "PIVOT")

It was indeed a very commendable move on the part of the Hong Kong Football Association when they decided to allocate two official line-men for all senior games during the present season.

This move will undoubtedly eradicate many of the little unpleasant incidents which had so often in the past led up to serious trouble.

The official season opened last week though the full programme of matches played revealed no surprises with the exception of St. Joseph's College's convincing win over Kowloon.

Last year's Champion S. China "A" showed that they are still as good as ever. Their five nil victory over East Lanes, clearly demonstrated this. A feature of the game was Tam Kong Pak's play at left-back.

The soldiers were worried by the nippy Chinese forwards and their defence had a gruelling time. The score of five nil was of course no reflection on the play as the soldiers had quite a good share of the game and it was only the good work of the Chinese defence that kept them from scoring.

The Hong Kong Football Club started their season very promisingly when they beat the R.A. (S) by four clear goals. Though without the services of Howe and Poter-Hunt their deputies Fowler and Gilchrist excelled themselves, especially Fowler who showed that he still possesses that turn of speed. The Gunners put up a miserable display and their game will have to be very much improved if they intend to go far in the league.

POLICE SUPERB

The Guardians of the Law did not disappoint their followers when they met the Recreio. Their fine understanding which was so wanting contributed in a great measure to their victory.

Stevens and Moss were very prominent in the forward line while Blackburn was, as usual, steady. McHardy in goal played well while the Recreio, though they showed flashes of their past form, were unable to really cope with the fast raids carried out by the Police.

The Portuguese boys have still to find their combination. A. V. Gosano played a great game at back and although he received a nasty cut in his forehead he pluckily carried on.

"Dicky" Alves was about the best of the Recreio's forwards. His turn of speed and accurate centres were spelt on many an occasion when his passes went begging.

St. Joseph's College had an easy day against Kowloon. The Mainland team is weak in many departments and the Collegians, although weak on paper, are certainly a team to be reckoned with on the form they displayed last week.

In U. B. Souza, the ex-Radio custodian they have a worthy successor to R. Marques, one time Portugal's keeper. Their defence appears to have been strengthened while their forwards, if they will only part with the ball more frequently, will cover more ground.

THE BEST GAME

The best game during the week-end was undoubtedly the game between the two Army teams—Fusiliers and Lincolns—who shared 3 goals.

These two teams will, I think, go a long way in the race for the Championship and much more will be heard of them as the season progresses.

The Athletics won their match against the R.A. (L) as expected but it was not an easy victory by any means. The Gunners put up a very stubborn defence and but for this department they might well have been badly beaten.

Their forwards played scrappy football and there was no understanding amongst them. The Chinese played delightful football. Their forwards once on the move looked dangerous and their foot-work was pretty to watch. On the whole the Chinese are a very improved team and should do well in the present season.

THIS WEEK'S GAMES

There are three senior games down for decision to-day, the most interesting of which will probably be that between St. Joseph's and the Club.

Both of these teams started their season very promisingly and it will be a test for the respective defences. The Club may claim to have a better one than the College but in a game where the forwards are fast and tricky there is no guarantee that the side with the better defence will win.

The other interesting game is that between the Lincolns and the Recreio. The Lincolns are playing good early season football and should win. They have a fast set of forwards and a stubborn defence but the Portuguese boys are also fast and tricky in the forward line. It all depends on whether Recreio can find their understanding of old.

Their defence is strong without being brilliant but is liable to break down on being pressed. I understand the Recreio will be without the services of the Gosano brothers and Beltrao who are on the injured list, in which case the soldiers' task will be made easier.

The third game—Kowloon and the East Lanes—should result in a runaway victory for the soldiers. Kowloon are not so impressive these days and their team work is none too good.

TO-MORROW'S GAMES

A very good and thrilling game should be seen to-morrow on the Kowloon ground when the Police and the Fusiliers meet. This game is sure to be a keenly contested affair. Both teams are very well balanced and play about just the same type of football. Weight counts a good deal in a clash of this sort and in this respect the Police may claim to have a slight advantage. A draw will in all probability be the result.

The other senior game will be that between the R.A. (S) and R.A. (L). I think the former should win.

Caroline Hill will attract a good crowd when the S.C.A.A. and the Athletics will battle out for the points in the junior division. This game is certain to produce football of a high standard and as the Athletics are in better form than their opponents they should just about get away with the points.

RIFLE SHOOT

Better Scores Despite Weather

In spite of unfavourable weather conditions, some keen shooting was seen at the spon and practice shoot held by the Hong Kong Rifle Association on the Kowloon City range on Wednesday afternoon.

The conditions of shooting were extremely difficult, for the light was a constantly varying factor, while the wind was continually changing, both in force and direction. In spite of these considerations, scores were definitely better, on the average, than those obtained at any previous shoot, and the chances of the Colony regaining the Interport Trophy are much brighter than anyone would have believed possible a few weeks ago.

DEATH OF FAST
BOWLERS

Reviewing the past season, a close follower of cricket fears that it has not been very productive of new talent for the team to visit Australia in 1936-37.

A number of young players, he thinks, have shown promise for the future, notably Washbrook, Oldfield, Denis Smith, Hardstaff and Fishlock as batsmen, and Perks, Howarth, Pollard and H. D. Read as bowlers.

McCorkell would seem to be well in the running for the post of reserve wicketkeeper-batsman.

But we have not yet discovered a successor to Voce or Larwood, and we shall certainly require two, if not three, good fast bowlers if we are to regain the "ashes."

Perhaps the most interesting player of the season, my friend considers, is young H. D. Read, of Essex. For four or five overs he is

NOTICE

Hong Kong Rifle Association
(1) The H.K.V.D.C. Rifle Club is affiliated to the recently formed H.K. Rifle Association and all members of the Corps are affiliated members of the Association. As such they will shortly be issued with membership cards, and are entitled to shoot at all association practice shoots when range accommodation is available. The Hong Kong Rifle Association hold practice shoots on the Kowloon City Range each Wednesday, commencing at 2 p.m. and members of the Corps wishing to shoot then should inform Sergt. L. B. Holmes not later than noon on Tuesday. Tel. No. 33128. Special buses leave Star Ferry each Wednesday at 1.45 for Kowloon City Range.

The Association will also hold week-end shoots at Stonecutters, when affiliated members are also entitled to shoot, provided target accommodation is not all required by full members.

There will be an association shoot on Saturday, October 5/1935 at Stonecutters. Launch leaves Queen's Pier at 1.40 p.m. and Kowloon at 1.50 p.m.

All Volunteer members may shoot, but must apply to Sergt. Holmes before noon on Friday.

(2) Members of the Corps may become full individual members of the Association at the reduced subscription of two dollars (Officers—$4) per annum. Application forms may be obtained from the Orderly Room.

Full individual members will always have prior claim to range accommodation, and be entitled to enter for spoon shoots, and all other competitions organised by the Association.

Fuller information may be had on application.

(3) Shooting will be organised into two classes:—
(1)—S.R. (a) i.e. with the service rifle as issued.

(2)—S.R. (b) i.e. with the service rifle, packed if desired, aided by aperture sights and sling, or with the 1914 pattern rifle with similar aids.

In no case will people shooting S.R. (a) compete against those shooting S.R. (b).

certainly faster than any other bowler in county cricket to-day.

The experience he will gain with the M.C.C. side in New Zealand this winter should be very valuable, and the trip may be just what he needs to bring out the best of him.

If he fulfils his promise, and G. O. Allen is fit and able to go, these two, with Nichols, Bowes or Perks to tail back-up, may quite well win the rubber for England.

The Australians are, just as badly off for "class" fast bowlers as we are.

WORLD

On 24-Foot Boat

Shanghai, Oct. 4.

In a 24-foot, four ton sail boat, four Russians sailed from Shanghai last night in an endeavour to circumnavigate the world. Led by Mr. S. G. Kriloff, the hardy adventurers will take advantage of the summer weather soon to come in the southern hemisphere, and will make their trip via Austria. The three other members of the party are Mr. V. V. Sokoloff, 27, Mr. P. P. Hoodneft, 22, and Mr. A. A. Zileff, 24.

Mr. Kriloff plans to make his trip to Australia by way of Hong Kong, Borneo, Sumatra, and Java. Arriving in Australia it will be decided whether or not the party will sail east to South America or west to South Africa. It has been definitely decided, however, that the boat will not go through the Suez Canal, as the party prefers to make as long a trip as possible.

The trip will be a leisurely one, and it is expected that stays of two weeks will be made at each of the islands and ports that the party visits. Provisions have been taken along for three months, re-provisioning being provided for at ports of call along the way.

The boat in which they sailed is only 24 feet, and of only four tons. Only sails will be used in the navigation of the vessel, there being no auxiliary engines on board. It is not known as yet how long the trip will take, but it is expected that it will take at least a year to circumnavigate the globe.

Big Crowds And Many Goals

(Special Air Mail Service)

London, Sept. 30.
Each of the 88 Football League clubs played the third of their matches on Saturday, and now, after the season has been in progress for little more than a week, only two clubs have won all their matches. They are Stockport County and Wrexham. Both play in the Northern Section of the Third Division, and Wrexham, who beat Chester by a goal scored early in the second half, were watched by a crowd of 25,000. The attendances all over the country were as large as they had been on the opening day of the season, about 625,000 people watching the 44 matches. Luton Town Accrington Stanley, and Rotherham, all Third Division clubs, have yet to gain a point.

In the Championship Huddersfield Town beat Brentford and went to the top with a lead of one point. Arsenal took the lead at Birmingham, where the crowd numbered 30,000, but their attack for once was not thrust home, and in a most exciting finish, in which the Arsenal goal had many narrow escapes, Devine made the score level. His goal was scored in the last minute of the game. During the week Arsenal lost at Grimsby, and on Saturday Chelsea won there by three goals to one. There was never any doubt about the victory of Chelsea, who were the better side in every way. Barnsley gave them the lead in the first half, scoring his own and his side's sixth goal of the season, and after Grimsby had drawn level Spence, always a dangerous wing forward, and Burgess added further goals.

EVERTON'S CRUSHING DEFEAT
One of the most remarkable results in this division was the victory of Middlesbrough at Preston by five goals to none. Cammell and Chadwick gave them a lead of two goals in the first five minutes, and Preston North End never looked like saving the game. The match between the two Liverpool clubs, which was watched by 60,000 people, as even more one-sided, Liverpool beating Everton by six goals to none. Everton, however, were handicapped by injuries after a good start, and had to rearrange their side in the second half. Howe scored four of the Liverpool goals. Bolton Wanderers and Leeds United, who have secured but one point each, were both heavily beaten; Derby County showed their true form against Bolton, and Blackburn Rovers were a greatly improved side at Leeds. There was a great game at Sunder-

For irritable Children

In the "Strand Magazine" of March 1933, the well-known food expert, Miss Kathleen Dane, writes:

"Many children of the irritable, nervous type, owe their state to a deficiency of organic salts, particularly calcium, notwithstanding the fact that the dietary appears to be properly balanced. Such youngsters do well when the diet is reinforced by a well-retained mineral food, such as 'Kalzana,' which medical men all over the country are now recommending."

Your quickly-growing child needs extra calcium to help the formation of straight bones, healthy teeth, and a strong constitution. Start your boy or girl on a course of Kalzana—you will be surprised at the all-around improvement Kalzana effects. Irritability disappears, appetite returns and soon the formerly "difficult" child will be a happy, healthy youngster again.

SOME STRIKING FIGURES

Britain's Sound Finances

(Special Air Mail Service)

London, Sept. 18.
The soundness of Britain's finances is illustrated in the full accounts of the nation for the year to March 31, 1935, issued last night. The accounts give details of practically every item of revenue and expenditure. Even the modest half penny is not omitted from the figures of Customs receipts.

Some striking figures are given in the full balance sheet. Total liabilities have been reduced by £127,929,670, compared with a year ago, and now amount to £27,902,432,897. At the same time, assets have declined by £103,563,372 to £514,595,998.

Both totals reflect the repayment by the Unemployment Fund of the £106,000,000 owed to the fund in unemployment, the fund is now solvent.

One interesting item in the assets is the holding of Suez Canal Shares. These are shown to have appreciated in value by £4,505,060 to £93,199,777 during the year.

The total debt on March 31 last was £27,922,124,063, a decrease of £23,070,316 in the year. An indication of the public's increased ability to save is provided by the receipts from the Post Office Savings Bank, which rose from £3,604,373 in 1933-34 to £4,331,724 last year.

Another sign of increased wealth is the rise in Customs receipts on tobacco, beer and other articles. Net receipts from tobacco and snuff advanced from £67,538,813 to £70,785,298 and the beer duty brought in £5,113,779 against £4,971,972. A heavy increase is also shown in the Customs receipts from oil, which rose from £39,972,851 to £42,354,023.
